

30 Hakanoa Street Huntly NZ

3  1

Nestled just a stone's throw from town and its vibrant amenities, this charming older character home beckons with promise and potential. In need of some tender loving care, this property boasts a prime location that promises convenience and accessibility. Perfect for first-time homeowners or savvy investors, its close proximity to shops, Lake Hakanoa, and schools enhances its appeal. The fenced, flat backyard offers a safe haven for children and pets to play freely. With a little renovation effort, this diamond in the rough is poised to become not just a home, but a valuable investment in a thriving community.
